MEMORY VERSE

So God created human beings in his own image.
- Genesis 1:27

STAFF BLURB

Hello! My name is Sage Peterson, and I am the Youth Director on staff here at F Street Neighborhood Church. I am entering into my 5th year here at F Street working with our 6th-12th grade students. Before coming to F Street, I grew up in Ankeny, Iowa, and also spent time working at Prairie Ridge Church, also in youth ministry. Growing up, my family was heavily involved in the church and multiple different ministries. But youth group is truly what changed my life. It's the place where I found lifelong friends, was mentored by leaders, and most importantly, it's where my faith became my own. In every moment of my life, whether up or down, it has been my church family that has been by my side. Because of that, I have been passionate about youth ministry and how life-changing it can be. Growing up can be a tough and confusing time, but every student should have the chance to grow their faith while being loved and mentored.

MEMORY VERSE DEVO

If you're like me, after reading a verse like this, it is always a reminder of the comfort and joy that we can find in our creator. After all, he created us in his image! But, unfortunately for people of all ages, and especially our youth, this joy is constantly under attack. We live in a society that puts pressure on our youth to find their worth in being an athlete, in the clothes they wear, what hobbies they have, their grades in school, who they hang out with, etc. At the very core, God has created us. He has created us in his own image and has chosen us individually. Our world constantly tries to force lies into our heads about every aspect of our lives. But what does life look like for our students when they're reminded that they're chosen and they have been made in his image?

This month, we encourage you to put this verse up in different locations in your home (fridge, mirror, kitchen table, door, car) to help remind your student that they're created in an image way better than what the world has created.

Family Challenge

Roll the dices (or call out two random numbers) and pray! There are 4 different types we have created:

Letters

Thank God for something that starts with that letter

Bible Books

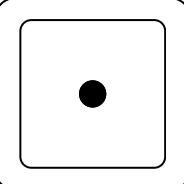

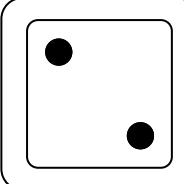

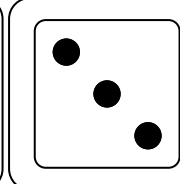

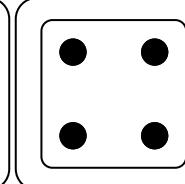

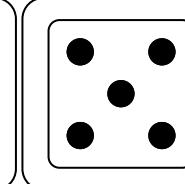

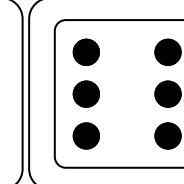

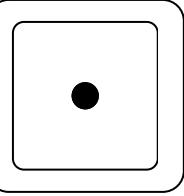

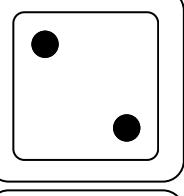

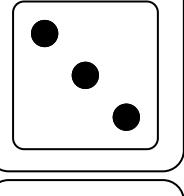

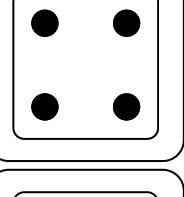

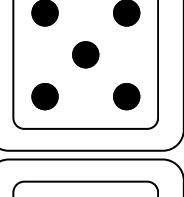

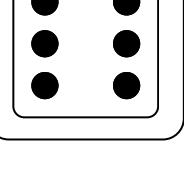

Randomly choose a book and verse. You can either talk about it or pray it by reading aloud.

People

Pray for the person you landed on

Topics

Talk about or pray about that topic
